

Personal Response	Class Connections
Dramatic Situation: what “plot”, if any, is there? What “setting”? Motif: what topic(s) is the poet writing about? Theme: what observation(s) is the poet making about the motif(s)? Mood: what feeling does the language evoke? If you were in the world of the poetry, how would you feel? Figurative language: what metaphors, personification, simile, imagery, symbol, etc. is there? Why is it there? Structure: how is the poem organized? Why are there (not) breaks where they are? Prosody: is there (not) a regular rhyme? What effect does it have? Are there a specific number of syllables per line? What effect does it have? Title: how does the title impact or create the mood, tone, and/or theme of the poem?	does it remind you of anything else? or how does class discussion relate to your response?
